Introduction

"Music and silence—how I detest them both!"

Screwtape, under-secretary to the devil, The Screwtape Letters by C. S. Lewis t's easy to see why the enemies of mankind would hate and fear both sacred silence and sacred music. Both bring joy, spur contemplation, and draw the soul nearer to the Lord. Both have been part of our private prayer as well as our communal liturgy for thousands of years.

The Psalms—biblical songs of praise, supplication, and wonder—have been sung for three thousand years. Naturally, Jesus, his disciples, and later the early Christian community also sang hymns (from the Greek word meaning "songs of praise"), as The New Testament makes clear.

We sing because we love, and sung praise elevates our words, takes them out of the realm of the commonplace, and increases our joy. The holy pleasure of singing to God involves the entire person—spirit, heart, mind, and body—and unites us not only with the Divine but also with one another as a worshiping community.

This collection of hymns for the singing Catholic congregation exemplifies the best of the genre. These songs are religiously orthodox, beautiful, sacred, and—for the most part—familiar. But here you will also find worthy hymn tunes and texts that are new to you.

Sung hymns have been an important part of the Liturgy of the Hours for century upon century, so they are nothing new, although singing them at Mass is relatively recent.

We present this book to propose not that hymns replace the proper chants for a particular day's Mass but live happily alongside them. In most instances the chants for processions are the prerogative of cantors and choirs and, as the texts change with every Sunday and solemnity, it's not practical for the congregation to learn and sing them.

Hymns, on the other hand, belong to all the faithful and serve as a key means of the "active participation" spoken of in Vatican II's Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy.

May this book bring joy to all who sing from it!

WILLIAM H. MONK, 1823–1889

- 4 I fear no foe, with thee at hand to bless; Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness. Where is death's sting? where, grave, thy victory? I triumph still, if thou abide with me.
- 5 Hold thou thy cross before my closing eyes; Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies; Heav'n's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee: In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me. Amen.

- 4 Alleluia! King eternal, Thee the Lord of lords we own;
 Alleluia! Born of Mary, Earth thy footstool, Heav'n thy throne:
 Thou within the veil hast entered, Robed in flesh our great high priest:
 Thou on earth both priest and victim In the Eucharistic feast.

 Alleluia! His the triumph, His the victory alone.
 Hark! The songs of holy Zion Thunder like a mighty flood,
 Jesus out of every nation Hath redeemed us by his blood.

At the Cross Her Station Keeping

- 5 Is there one who would not weep, Whelmed in miseries so deep Christ's dear Mother to behold?
- 6 Can the human heart refrain From partaking in her pain, In that Mother's pain untold?
- 7 Bruised, derided, cursed, defiled, She beheld her tender Child All with bloody scourges rent;
- 8 For the sins of his own nation, Saw him hang in desolation, Till his Spirit forth he sent.
- 9 O thou Mother! Fount of love! Touch my spirit from above, Make my heart with thine accord:
- 10 Make me feel as thou hast felt; Make my soul to glow and melt With the love of Christ my Lord.
- 11 Holy Mother! pierce me through; In my heart each wound renew Of my Savior crucified:
- 12 Let me share with thee his pain, Who for all my sins was slain, Who for me in torment died.

- 13 Let me mingle tears with thee, Mourning him who mourned for me, All the days that I may live:
- 14 By the Cross with thee to stay; There with thee to weep and pray; Is all I ask thee to give.
- 15 Virgin of all virgins blest! Listen to my fond request: Let me share thy grief divine;
- 16 Let me, to my lastest breath, In my body bear the death Of that dying Son of thine.
- 17 Wounded with his ev'ry wound, Steep my soul till it hath swooned In his very blood away.
- 18 Be to me, O Virgin, nigh, Lest in flames I burn and die, In that awful Judgment day.
- Christ, when thou shalt call me hence, Be thy Mother my defence, Be thy Cross my victory;
- 20 While my body here decays, May my soul thy goodness praise, Safe in Paradise with thee. Amen.
